Last year the German photographer Sabine Felber visited Brazil. She took photos of contemporary artists and intellectuals.

The photo series retrato brasileiro will be shown in advance of the FIFA World Cup in Brazil. The aim of the exhibition is to show many facets of Brazilian art and cultural landscape and the people involved. Therefore Felber met well known people as for example the actor Chico Díaz or the author and essayist Silviano Santiago. But she also photographed less famous people. They all add up to that "Brazilian Portrait", that gave the exhibition its title.
